

HEALTH STATEMENT

On commencement of employment, and in line with your contract of employment, you are requested to disclose all pre-existing injuries and diseases suffered by you of which you are aware and which could reasonably be expected, or could be affected, by the nature of your proposed employment with the company.

If you fail to disclose such pre-existing injuries and diseases or you make a false or misleading disclosure then sections 82(7) and 82(8) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 (Vic) will apply. The effect of this sub-section is that despite any recurrence, aggravation, acceleration, exacerbation or deterioration of the pre-existing injury or disease as a result of the nature of your employment with the company you may not be entitled to compensation under that Act.

Please indicate below any pre-existing injury or disease that may impact your employment with Hotelstaff Pty Ltd. Please indicate if you have worked with any substances or in any conditions which may have been hazardous to your health (e.g. asbestos exposure, toxic chemicals, or noisy environments).
